Additional information regarding Academic Advisors

Each student will be allocated an academic advisor whose responsibilities will include pastoral care in addition to mentoring and monitoring the studentâ??s academic and personal development progress during the programme. You will meet with your Academic Advisor at regular intervals throughout the course to discuss your academic progress and raise any issues you may have. The progress of the research project will also be discussed at these meetings (as well as progress on the programme more generally) but the supervision of the project is the responsibility of the project supervisor.

Attendance at Advisor meetings will be recorded by the student submitting a brief summary of the items discussed and signing an electronic form.
